Attorneys for Defendants

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

MARK ALAN GREENBURG, a married man,

Case No.: CV2022-001353

Plaintiff,

SPECIAL MOTION TO DISMISS COMPLAINT
Pursuant to A.R.S. § 12-752

v.

AMANDA WRAY AND DANIEL WRAY, a married couple,

(Oral Argument Requested)

Defendants.

(Assigned to the Hon. Joan Sinclair)

1 Pursuant to A.R.S. § 12-752, Defendants Amanda Wray (“Ms. Wray”) and Daniel Wray
2 (“Mr. Wray”) hereby file this Special Motion to Dismiss Strategic Lawsuit against Public
3 Participation (“anti-SLAPP”) and respectfully ask the Court to dismiss the Complaint with 4 prejudice. Pursuant to A.R.S. § 12-752(B), Defendants request that the Court find that this lawsuit
5 was brought to deter or prevent Defendants from exercising their constitutional rights and is 6 thereby brought for an improper purpose, including to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or 7 needless increase in the cost of litigation, and impose additional sanctions as permitted by A.R.S.
8 § 12-752(B).

9 Defendants request that the Court give calendar preference to this action and conduct an 10 expedited hearing in accordance with A.R.S. § 12-752(A). Finally, Defendants request their 11 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, within the meaning of A.R.S. § 12-752(D).

12 I. INTRODUCTION

13 Plaintiff Mark Alan Greenburg (“Greenburg”) waged a harassment and intimidation 14 campaign against mothers including Defendant Amanda Wray (“Ms. Wray”)¹ who were trying to 15 change their local schools’ policies. His efforts included watching parents gather petition
16 signatures, his large frame clad in a motorcycle suit with a helmet hiding his face on a 105-degree
17 day. It included Greenburg hiding behind a fake Facebook profile, pretending to be an African-18 American man with another name, to surreptitiously gather information from the parents’ private 19 group. He also used that fake profile to send Ms. Wray a crass midnight message telling her she 20 needed to use an exercise bike just hours after he saw her criticize his son, a school official, at a 21 town hall meeting. It included posting online a meme, a picture with text, suggesting one of the 22 SUSD parents was a racist, and drafting another to falsely do the same to Ms. Wray. And it
23 included amassing information about the parents and preparing to sue them, consistent with a 24 reputation for harassment and litigation.

25
27 ¹ Because the only allegation against Mr. Wray is that he “ratified” Ms. Wray’s activities, any 28 reference to Ms. Wray is also a reference to Daniel Wray, to the extent that the fact would apply to Mr. Wray.

1 Parents fortuitously discovered the publicly-accessible place on the internet where 2 Greenburg kept his information about them. Undaunted, he filed this lawsuit challenging her 3 truthful statements about his harassment campaign against her and the information he collected.
4 Specifically, he alleges four preposterous claims: (1) Ms. Wray maliciously made, said, or wrote
5 defamatory and false statements about Greenburg, Compl. ¶¶150-158 (Count I - Defamation); (2)
6 Ms. Wray maliciously made, said, or wrote statements about Greenburg that created highly 7 offensive false impressions, Compl. ¶¶160-166 (Count II – False Light); (3) Ms. Wray
8 intentionally interfered with or invaded Greenburg’s privacy by inspecting his private records
9 without authorization, Compl. ¶¶168-172 (Count III - Intrusion upon Seclusion); and (4) Ms.
10 Wray publicly disclosed Greenburg’s private files without authorization and for “no legitimate 11 purpose other than to humiliate, terrorize, and harm.” Compl. ¶¶174-178 (Count IV – Public 12 Disclosure of Private Facts).

13 This is precisely the type of lawsuit that A.R.S. § 12-752, Arizona’s law prohibiting 14 strategic lawsuits against public participation (anti-SLAPP), exists to prevent. To silence Ms.
15 Wray’s advocacy for certain school policies, Greenburg has filed frivolous claims against her in 16 retaliation for her political speech. As shown below, Greenburg’s claims violate the anti-SLAPP
17 statute because her statements are related to her protected policy advocacy, Greenburg’s claims 18 lack specificity about what exactly Ms. Wray said, and Ms. Wray’s statements were privileged or 19 otherwise based in fact and law. Accordingly, pursuant to Arizona’s anti-SLAPP statute, this 20 Court should dismiss the complaint, order Greenburg to pay attorney’s fees and costs, and impose 21 sanctions.

22 II. FACTS

23 Ms. Wray is a mother whose children attend SUSD schools. Wray Decl. ¶3; Compl. ¶¶37, 24 140, attached hereto as “Exhibit 1”. In August 2020, Ms. Wray became a vocal participant in 25 public discussions around SUSD’s policies. Wray Decl. ¶4. She also formed a community
26 advocacy network, called SUSD-CAN, to help district parents influence SUSD policies. Wray 27 Decl. ¶5-6; Compl. ¶25.

1 The reason for Greenburg’s obsession with Ms. Wray is simple. Greenburg’s son, Jann-
2 Michael Greenburg (“Greenburg’s son”), is on the SUSD Governing Board, and Ms. Wray
3 directly challenged his son’s policies. Compl. ¶18; Wray Decl. ¶6. Greenburg’s intimidation
4 campaign has now culminated in this lawsuit. It also includes another case he filed simultaneously
5 in federal court ridiculously accusing Ms. Wray and her husband of violating a federal law against 6 hacking by viewing his publicly-accessible, non-password protected, online trove of information
7 he collected about her and others in connection with their SUSD advocacy.

8 Greenburg is notorious in his community for attacking people online and suing them. Wray
9 Decl. ¶8. In recent years, Greenburg has filed lawsuits in the Maricopa County Superior Court
10 against Emily Austin in 2021 (Case No. CV2021-005444); Barbara and William Perleberg in 2018
11 (Case No. CV2018-014198); and Edmond Meo Richard in 2018 (CV2018-013017). These were 12 all instances in which Greenburg asserted privacy torts and similar claims in order to “settle 13 scores” against personal enemies.

14 Ms. Wray first noticed Greenburg tracking her on September 1, 2020, when Greenburg
15 recorded her and other parents holding signs advocating for in-person learning. Wray Decl. ¶7.
16 Greenburg uploaded the video to YouTube. Id. On October 12, 2020, Ms. Wray removed an 17 account from membership in SUSD-CAN’s Facebook group, for a profile named “Frank 18 Graham,” that Greenburg was using to conceal his identity. Id. ¶9, Exhibit A. The picture
19 Greenburg used for the Frank Graham account was of an African American family; Mr. Greenburg
20 is not African American.

1 Id. Ex. A.

2 On January 19, 2021, Ms. Wray attended a SUSD Board meeting. Wray Decl. ¶8; Compl.
3 ¶¶ 37-40. During the meeting, Greenburg moved to sit directly behind her. Id. ¶8. When she began
4 to pack her things to leave, Greenburg left the meeting, which she felt was him trying to confront
5 her outside of the meeting. Id. Ms. Wray expressed her opinion that it felt as though Greenburg
6 was watching and following her and wanted Ms. Wray to know it. Id.

7 On January 21, 2021, Ms. Wray participated in an online public meeting where she 8 questioned Greenburg’s son’s behavior. Wray Decl. ¶9. Within a few hours, Greenburg sent a 9 message to Ms. Wray at midnight, again using the alias “Frank Graham,” stating “I finally saw 10 you in person. You might want to buy a peloton bike” Id. (See above screenshot of post.) Ms.
11 Wray suspected Greenburg was Graham, which was later confirmed. Wray Decl. ¶¶10-11. This 12 unwanted and unsolicited private message on social media made Ms. Wray feel intimidated, which 13 she publicly stated. Id. ¶10.

14 Four days later, on January 25, 2021, Ms. Wray sent an email to SUSD’s Superintendent, 15 Scott Menzel. Wray Decl., Ex. C. Ms. Wray relayed her concerns for her personal safety, reporting 16 her experiences on January 19 and with the January 22 Facebook message. Id. Ms. Wray also 17 reported that she “heard from a reliable source that Mark Greenburg threatened another private 18 citizen by displaying a weapon while out placing campaign signs for Eric Kurland.” Compl. ¶48;
19 Wray Decl. ¶12. Wray prefaced this statement with “I’m not sure if this is true, but . . .” Wray
20 Decl., Ex. C, ¶13.

21 The basis for Ms. Wray’s belief was that third parties told her that a woman and her
22 husband confronted Greenburg in or around November 2020 about stolen campaign signs for a
23 state legislature candidate, and that Greenburg responded to them by saying he possessed a 24 handgun. Wray Decl. ¶13. Three separate people told her the same story. Id. A Scottsdale Police
25 Department Police report regarding the incident confirmed the story. Id., Ex. D. Ms. Wray 26 interpreted the story as an example of Greenburg’s “recent threatening behavior.” Id. ¶13. She 27 recounted the story to support her request for police to be present at future meetings because she 28 was afraid of Mr. Greenburg. Id., Ex. C.

1 Greenburg also created a meme and posted it on May 19, 2021, about another SUSD parent.
2 Compl. ¶ 51; Wray Decl. ¶14. The “meme” took an out-of-context statement this parent had made
3 on a Facebook comment thread and placed this text in front of an image of that parent’s face,
4 Wray Decl. Ex. F, ostensibly to embarrass her. Greenburg posted the “meme” to a political 5 candidate’s Facebook page. Id. ¶ 14. Ms. Wray suggested to members of her Facebook group that 6 they “report” Greenburg’s comment as harassment. Id. ¶14, Ex. E.

7 Ms. Wray later discovered among Greenburg’s publicly-accessible files about her another
8 meme that he apparently created to attack her and her husband, implying she was a racist, 9 identifying where her husband worked, and suggesting she gave “dubious” financial advice to 10 others, but was herself financially irresponsible. Wray Decl. ¶21, Ex. G.

11 Ms. Wray also caught Greenburg photographing others, while attempting to conceal his 12 identity, on August 24, 2021. Wray Decl. ¶¶16-17; Compl. ¶¶54-58. Greenburg admits he did this.
13 Compl. ¶63c. Greenburg arrived to a nearly empty parking lot, parked right in front of Ms. Wray’s
14 vehicle, and never took off his motorcycle suit or helmet, on a 105-degree day. Wray Decl. ¶17, 15 Ex. H; Compl. ¶¶54, 56. Greenburg then took photos of Ms. Wray and other citizens, some of 16 whom had children with them. Wray Decl. ¶17. Additionally, Greenburg took body camera video 17 on that day, and said that he intentionally parked in front of Ms. Wray, that he took “lengths” to 18 conceal his identity. Id. ¶22, Ex. H (. Greenburg acknowledges he was there “in the hopes of 19 photographing SUSD-CAN members” while taking “measures to conceal his identity.” Compl.
20 ¶¶63c, 63p. Ms. Wray, knowing that Greenburg was compiling information on parents, reported 21 this suspicious behavior to police because she felt harassed, stalked, intimidated, and 22 uncomfortable, which is the context of her statement that she was “afraid of this man.” Wray Decl.
23 ¶¶16-17; Compl. ¶56-57.

24 In August 2021, Greenburg’s son shared with four nonparties the publicly accessible
25 location on the internet (a “Google Drive”) of information Greenburg had been compiling about 26 SUSD parents. Stafford Decl., Ex. A; Compl. ¶92, attached hereto as “Exhibit 2”. News of the 27 publicly accessible information came to the attention of Ms. Wray and others in the SUSD-CAN 28 community. Wray Decl. ¶19.

1 Ms. Wray was concerned that Greenburg and his son may have been storing information
2 about her on the Google Drive. Wray Decl. ¶20. When she received a hyperlink to the Google
3 Drive, she clicked on the link and it took her to the Google Drive. Id. The Google Drive was 4 publicly accessible and not password protected. Id. ¶¶19, 23. However, it was view-only, meaning
5 Ms. Wray could not alter, delete, or modify its contents. Id. ¶23.

6 Ms. Wray found a large number of files about her, including Facebook posts from private 7 groups in which Greenburg was not a member, her mortgage documents, property deeds, pictures
8 of her children and homes, a background check, and her business and professional licenses. Wray
9 Decl. ¶20. Greenburg and his son had even found bankruptcy and university records for “Amanda 10 Joe Ross,” which were not Ms. Wray’s, but “Ross” is her maiden name. Id. Upon discovering all 11 of this, Ms. Wray felt ill and vomited. Id. ¶21.

12 For the latest act of Greenburg’s harassment and intimidation campaign against Ms. Wray, 13 he filed this lawsuit, crossing a line drawn by the legislature in 2006 when it enacted the Anti-14 SLAPP statute. As demonstrated below, Greenburg’s allegations evaporate like candle smoke in 15 a gale because they are just as insubstantial. Greenburg’s puffed-up defamation allegations are in 16 fact based on a handful of statements about encounters between Ms. Wray and Greenburg that led 17 Ms. Wray to appropriately feel and state that he harassed her and she feared for her safety. The 18 remaining allegations stem from Greenburg’s son publishing the web address of materials 19 Greenburg had been amassing online about Ms. Wray and others, including video footage of 20 Greenburg creepily filming them seeking recall petition signatures while he wore a motorcycle
21 outfit and helmet to hide his identity. Compl. ¶¶80-148.

22 III. ARGUMENT

23 A. Arizona Law Prohibits Using a Lawsuit to Challenge a Person’s “Public
24 Participation in Governmental Proceedings,” including “Informal
25 Communications.”

26 The U.S. and Arizona constitutions protect the rights of citizens to free speech, association,
27 and to petition the government. U.S. CONST. amend I; Ariz. CONST. art. 2, §§5-6. In 2006, Arizona
28 also enacted A.R.S. §12-752, a defense against strategic lawsuits against public participation

1 (“anti-SLAPP”), “which provides an expedited mechanism for challenging a complaint predicated
2 on public participation in governmental proceedings.” BLK III, LLC v. Skelton, ---P.3d----, 2022
3 WL 480946, ¶8 (Ariz. Ct. App. February 17, 2022). The legislature enacted this statute in 4 recognition of “the rights of citizens...to be involved and participate freely in the process of 5 government,” which “shall be encouraged and safeguarded with great diligence.” Id. at ¶19.

6 Section 12-752 applies to lawsuits filed against someone for their “exercise of the right to 7 petition,” which includes constitutionally protected speech “before or submitted to a legislative or 8 executive body or any other governmental proceeding,” speech “[m]ade in connection with an 9 issue that is under consideration or review,” or speech “for the purpose of influencing 10 governmental action, decision or result.” A.R.S. §§12-751(1)(a)-(c); 12-752. This protection is 11 not limited to direct participation in front of governmental bodies, but also includes public
12 advocacy, such as “distributing flyers, gathering petitions, [and] writing letters.” BLK III at ¶19
13 (citing Amended Senate Fact Sheet, H.B. 2440, 47th Leg., 2d Reg. Sess. (Apr. 19, 2006)).

14 To survive anti-SLAPP, Greenburg must allege (A) specific facts that demonstrate Ms.
15 Wray’s statements were not constitutionally protected speech or that they were not within the 16 scope of A.R.S. § 12-751(1); or (B) show that Ms. Wray’s statements “did not contain any 17 reasonable factual support or any arguable basis in law” and that her statements caused him “actual 18 compensable injury.” BLK III at ¶10 (citing A.R.S. §12-752(B)). It is insufficient to 19 “baldly alleg[e] that a defendant made defamatory statements devoid of constitutional protection.”
20 BLK III, at ¶16. “Instead, the plaintiff must clearly and specifically allege the content and 21 context of the challenged statements and why and how they were defamatory.” Id. (emphasis 22 added).

23 “This is especially true in a defamation action because the context and language of an 24 allegedly defamatory statement is crucial to the court’s analysis.” Id. at ¶15 (citing Phoenix
25 Newspapers, Inc. v. Church, 103 Ariz. 582, 587 (1968)). “[W]ithout knowing the precise language
26 of the statement allegedly uttered, the court cannot analyze whether the statement is objectively 27 verifiable as true or false[.]” Id. at ¶15. This requirement also applies to Greenburg’s claim for 28 false light, which requires proof a statement “place[] the other before the public in a false light”

1 and that the “actor had knowledge of or acted in reckless disregard as to the falsity....” Godbehere
2 v. Phoenix Newspapers, Inc., 162 Ariz. 335, 338 (1989) (citing Restatement (Second) of Torts §
3 652E (1977)) (emphasis added). In both instances, a court needs to evaluate the truthfulness or 4 falsity of the specific statement.

5 The Court must look to the content of what Ms. Wray said, and evaluate whether that 6 content comes with factual support or arguable basis in law. BLK III at ¶21. For example, in BLK
7 III, the Plaintiff, a live music venue, sued nearby residents who made noise complaints against the 8 venue. Id. at ¶3. The defendants “reported only that [the plaintiff’s] live music disturbed the peace 9 and enjoyment of their homes,” which was an assertion that the plaintiff never “negated.” Id. at 10 ¶21. The court found that the pleadings “did not identify any specific complaint the Defendants
11 made, nor did it show why any specific complaint was false.” Id. at ¶17. Rather, the pleadings 12 “offered broad summaries” that “lack the requisite specificity to allow the court to determine that 13 they contained objectively verifiable statements of fact.” Id. Thus, Greenburg need not prove that 14 he did not commit crimes, as he tries to frame the issue. Compl. ¶¶ 64-68. Rather, he must 15 “disprove the content of” Wray’s statements and prove they are legally actionable. But if only 16 subjective determinations and opinions are stated, a court cannot “analyze whether the statement
17 is objectively verifiable as true or false[.]” BLK, III at ¶15. Accordingly, such statements are not 18 defamatory. Id.

19 Many of Greenburg’s allegations of defamation and false light are vague and do not 20 provide the necessary factual specificity or argument. In fact, the Complaint is not accompanied 21 by a single exhibit or imbedded image of any of Ms. Wray’s supposedly offending posts, letters, 22 or interviews. On the contrary, Ms. Wray’s Declaration, and portions of the Complaint, 23 demonstrate the factual support and/or the basis in law for her statements.

24 B. Ms. Wray Engaged in Activities Protected by Arizona’s Anti-SLAPP 25 Statute.

26 To gain anti-SLAPP protection, a defendant must be “exercising [her] right to petition.”
27 A.R.S. § 12-752. “Exercise of the right of petition” means (a) speech before a legislative or 28 government agency, (b) speech in connection with an issue under consideration of a legislative,

1 executive, or governmental body, or (c) and speech made for the purpose of influencing a
2 governmental action, decision, or result. A.R.S. §12-751.

3 Ms. Wray's efforts easily fell within the definition of the "Exercise of the right of petition"
4 pursuant to A.R.S. §12-751(1)(a)-(c). The government agency she petitioned was the SUSD (§12-5 751(1)(a)), the issues under consideration were in-person learning, fiscal policies, and parental 6 involvement in school (§12-751(1)(b)), and her purpose was to have SUSD change its fiscal and 7 in-person learning policies, and to involve parents (§12-751(1)(c)). Wray Decl. ¶4.

8 Accordingly, in August 2020, Ms. Wray became a vocal participant in the public discussion
9 regarding SUSD's policies on in-person learning, SUSD's finances, and parent involvement in 10 setting policy. Wray Decl. ¶4. In support of those policies, she became an administrator on a
11 "SUSD-CAN" Facebook Group, which was a forum for discussing and influencing SUSD's 12 education policies. Id. ¶5. For example, on September 1, 2020, Wray held signs advocating for 13 in-person learning. Id. ¶7. In furtherance of this mission, Ms. Wray has also attended school board 14 meetings, both in-person and online, helped organize recall signature drives, posted on social 15 media, appeared on television, radio, and podcasts, and has helped organize a recall effort for 16 school board members. Compl. ¶¶37, 39-40, 43, 45-46, 51, 54, 56-57, 76-79, 121-126, 152; Wray 17 Decl. ¶¶7-8, 16, 12.

18 C. Greenburg's Vague Claims Unlawfully Target Wray for Engaging in 19 Protected Activity

20 Greenburg's Complaint targets Ms. Wray for statements made on social media, television, 21 radio, and podcasts. Compl. ¶¶37, 39-40, 43, 45-46, 51, 56-57, 76-79, 121-126, 152. Each of these 22 comments was in furtherance of Ms. Wray's right to petition.

23 1. Ms. Wray's Statements About Feelings Arising from Greenburg's
24 Conduct at the January 19, 2021 SUSD Board Meeting

25 Greenburg alleges that on January 22, 2021, Ms. Wray defamed him and put him in a false 26 light by: (a) posting on Facebook that he attended a January 19, 2021 SUSD board meeting to 27 intimidate and harm her, Compl. ¶37; (b) saying on May 19, 2021, that he stalked her at the 28

1 meeting, Id. ¶39; and (c) said on a radio show that Greenburg intimidated her at the meeting. Id.
2 ¶40.

3 Since August 2020, about six months before the January 19, 2021, SUSD board meeting,
4 Ms. Wray had been engaged in federal and state constitutionally-protected policy advocacy
5 regarding SUSD Board matters. As early as September 2020, Greenburg (the father of a SUSD
6 Board member who became Board president in 2021) had begun his campaign against her and the 7 other parents. Greenburg was seen tracking Ms. Wray on September 1, 2020, when Greenburg
8 recorded her and other parents holding signs advocating for in-person learning. Wray Decl. ¶7.
9 Greenburg uploaded this video to YouTube. Id.

10 By the time of the January 19, 2022 SUSD Board meeting, Greenburg's reputation for 11 harassment and litigation also preceded him and informed Ms. Wray's interpretation of his 12 actions. Wray Decl. ¶ 8. (Indeed, he admits in his Complaint he was compiling information on 13 his son's political adversaries in preparation for litigation against them. Compl. ¶81). Ms. Wray
14 attended the Board meeting to show support for two parents that she knew who were commenting 15 on school policy. Wray Decl. ¶8. When Greenburg arrived, he made eye contact with Ms. Wray
16 and moved seats to sit down behind her. Id. When Ms. Wray began to pack her things to leave, 17 Greenburg left the room and went out in the hall. Id. Ms. Wray was afraid Greenburg would 18 confront her, so she did not leave. Id. She felt that Greenburg was sending a message that he was 19 (again) watching her and following her. Id.

20 Ms. Wray's statements (especially as a non-lawyer) that Greenburg intimidated her, was 21 "stalking" her, and that he meant to intimidate her were thus based on reasonable factual support.
22 It is absurd to argue, as Greenburg does, that he is the victim of defamation because a woman he 23 has filmed (and uploaded that video to the internet) because of her political views and activities,
24 in a community in which he has cultivated a reputation for harassment of his political adversaries,
25 had the courage to say he was intimidating, harassing, or stalking her. In the full context of Mr.
26 Greenburg's behavior described here, it would be a chilling conclusion that the law forbids women 27 from saying what is being done to them for doing nothing more than speaking, or else they must 28 pay their harassers.

1 2. Ms. Wray's Statement She Felt Harassed by Greenburg's Facebook
2 Message

3 On January 22 and 25, 2021, Ms. Wray allegedly wrote that Greenburg sent her an 4 unsolicited Facebook message in the middle of the night. Compl. ¶¶43-44. Greenburg does not
5 provide the full content of Wray's message, but rather only quotes words such as "challenging,"
6 "in the middle of the night" and "was personally harassed." Compl. ¶¶44-46. Greenburg groups
7 these two alleged statements with allegations that Ms. Wray falsely claimed on May 21 and 8 November 27, 2021, that Greenburg harassed her. Compl. ¶¶45-46, 60.

9 Greenburg's claims omit key facts about his insulting behavior that prompted Ms. Wray's
10 statements. On January 21, 2021, in an online public meeting, which Greenburg attended, Ms.
11 Wray questioned something said by Greenburg's son. Wray Decl. ¶9. Mere hours later, at 12:00 12 a.m., Greenburg sent a message to Ms. Wray, hiding behind a fake Facebook account under the 13 name Frank Graham and a picture of a black family. He wrote: "I finally saw you in person. You 14 might want to buy a peloton [sic] bike[.]" Id.; Ex. A. Greenburg admits that he sent this message.
15 Compl. ¶60b.

16 Greenburg's adolescent online trolling of Ms. Wray provides all the factual and legal basis 17 a woman needs to say she felt "personally harassed" by the message he indeed sent in "the middle 18 of the night."

19 3. Ms. Wray's Statement in a May 19, 2021 Facebook Post Suggesting 20 that Others Report One of Greenburg's Posts as Harassment

21 Greenburg alleges that Ms. Wray defamed him when, in "a May 19, 2021 Facebook post
22 to SUSD-CAN," she "falsely accused" him of harassment for creating a meme "regarding a matter
23 of public concern, an exercise of his First Amendment rights." Compl. ¶51. But Greenburg
24 obfuscates what Ms. Wray actually said. Greenburg posted a picture of a parent with text in an 25 effort to embarrass her, and Ms. Wray merely encouraged other members of her private Facebook
26 group to report this to Facebook as harassment. Wray Decl. ¶14, Exhibit E.

27 Ms. Wray's suggestion that members of the private Facebook group mark Greenburg's 28 post as "harassment" cannot be defamatory, because it does not convey an assertion of objective fact about Greenburg, but simply suggests a course of conduct. See Sign Here Petitions LLC v. Chavez, 243 Ariz. 99, 195 ¶20 (Ct. App. 2017) (“The key inquiry is whether the challenged expression ... would reasonably appear to state or imply assertions of objective fact.” (quoting Yetman v. English, 168 Ariz. 71, 76 (1991)) (ellipsis in original). Even if the Court were to construe Ms. Wray’s suggestion that other members mark the post as harassment as implying that Greenburg engaged in harassment, her disclosure of Greenburg’s post forecloses a defamation claim because it allowed viewers to see what Greenburg had posted and then form their own opinion about it. See McKnight v. McKnight, No. CV-20-01956-PHX-DWL, 2021 WL 4133970, at *5 (D. Ariz. Sept. 10, 2021) (“If an expression of opinion follows from nondefamatory facts that are either stated or assumed, the reader is likely to take the opinion for what it is.” (quoting Lewis v. Time, Inc., 710 F.2d 549, 555 (9th Cir. 1983)).

4. Ms. Wray’s Stated Desire for Police Protection from Greenburg So She Could Safely Engage in Protected Activities

Greenburg’s Complaint twice targets Ms. Wray for understandably seeking police protection from Greenburg in order for her to safely continue participating in SUSD-related meetings and activities. Compl. ¶¶48-50, 52-58, 63. Greenburg first complains about an email Ms. Wray sent on January 25, 2021, to the SUSD Superintendent in which she stated she feared for her personal safety while at SUSD Board meetings because of Greenburg’s actions, including the harassment and intimidation tactics described here and an incident she knew of in which he claimed to have a gun. Compl. ¶48; Wray Decl. ¶12-13; id., Ex. C (email).

The only purpose of this email was so she could feel safe enough to attend and participate in SUSD proceedings, which are protected activities. In the email, she says “I’m not certain if this is true, but I have heard from a reliable source that Mark Greenburg threatened another private citizen by displaying a weapon while out placing campaign signs for Eric Kurland.” Wray Dec. ¶13. First, it is clear she is only explaining why she fears Greenburg. Second, she is clear that she is providing third-hand information she does not know is true, but which she heard from people she credits. Third, the alleged incident also involved a confrontation over political activity in which Greenburg responded to simple questioning with a grossly unwarranted and

1 disproportionate threat. Fourth, Ms. Wray submits a police report from the incident that 2 establishes Greenburg in fact reacted to being questioned by a couple by claiming he had a gun.
3 Wray Decl. ¶13; Ex. D.

4 Consequently, Ms. Wray's email, couched and caveated as it is as something she doesn't 5 know is true, based on hearsay, which only served to explain the basis of her request for protection
6 from Greenburg, does not come close to being objectively false and defamatory or putting 7 Greenburg in a false light.

8 Ms. Wray's second plea for police protection from Mr. Greenburg, which he claims is 9 defamatory and put him in a false light, occurred on August 24, 2021, while she was attending a 10 signature-gathering event to recall SUSD Board members. Wray. Decl. ¶17; Compl. ¶52-57. In 11 addition to the earlier incidents described above, Ms. Wray was also aware that Greenburg was 12 compiling information on SUSD-CAN parents opposing his son's policies. Wray. Decl. ¶17.
13 Considering this background, Ms. Wray reasonably felt harassed, stalked, and intimidated by a 14 large man she (correctly) believed was Greenburg who was taking photographs of her and others
15 while trying to conceal his identity. Id. The full details of her account are disturbing:

16 On August 24, a 105-degree day, a man I suspected to be Greenburg followed me
17 into the parking lot wearing a motorcycle outfit that covered his entire body, 18 including a helmet, and parked directly in front of my vehicle in a mostly empty lot.
19 . . When I later moved my car away from Greenburg, he left the lot and then returned 20 to park in a different spot with his camera pointed at us. I felt harassed, stalked, and 21 intimidated by Greenburg's actions as he was taking photographs of me while 22 disguised, and he seemed focused on me while he was taking pictures of various people at the event I attended. . . . I, and other parents, felt so uncomfortable about the surveillance and photography of our children . . . that we spoke to the police officers on campus that afternoon.

23 Wray. Decl. ¶17.

24 Reporting a complaint to a law enforcement officer is "absolutely privileged... preventing 25 [a plaintiff] from maintaining a defamation action." Ledvina v. Cerasani, 213 Ariz. 569, 571 (Ct.
26 App. 2006). So too are other instances of "reporting suspected illegal activity" in order to provide 27 "citizens free and open access to governmental agencies." Id. at 574. Indeed, reporting information
28 in a January 25, 2021, email, to SUSD in hopes of feeling safe to attend SUSD meetings, and

1 reporting to police behavior that made her feel unsafe to collect signatures, fits within this 2 privilege.

3 In addition to being privileged, Ms. Wray's statements were also true. We know the man
4 hiding his face behind the helmet that hot day was Mr. Greenburg, because he loaded the body
5 camera video he took onto the internet. Wray Decl. Ex. H. In the video, he tells women in the 6 parking lot outside the SUSD Governing Board meeting that he intended to sue Ms. Wray and 7 that he hired a private investigator to record her and others' license plates. He further stated "The 8 lengths we have to go to to not be recognized...they don't like having their picture taken, I'll tell
9 you that." Id. (9:44). Referring to Ms. Wray, Greenburg said "she was one of the first cars here. I
10 pulled my motorcycle directly facing her car; she has no idea I even have a motorcycle and I've 11 covered up my license plate." Id. (10:24); Wray. Decl. ¶22. A copy of this video is attached to 12 Ms. Wray's Declaration as Exhibit H.

13 Ms. Wray rightfully, reasonably, and accurately reported Greenburg to the police for his 14 harassing and intimidating tactics that day and she had every right to tell others. According to the 15 Complaint, "[o]n November 11, 2021, Amanda gave an interview in which she stated "[she] had 16 gone to the police officers that were on site ... and [she] said, 'I am afraid of this man. Like, he is 17 taking photos of us. It is 105 degrees, he is in full motorcycle gear, never took his helmet off'" 18 Compl. ¶56. The Complaint also alleges that "[o]n or around November 17, 2021, Amanda gave 19 an interview in which she stated 'there's bodycam footage of Mark Greenburg [Plaintiff] ...
20 stalking me and talking about concealing his identity and intimidating me.'" Compl. ¶57.

21 Despite having recorded himself engaging in exactly the unsettling behavior that drove Ms.
22 Wray to report him to the police and share her story about his harassment, Greenburg audaciously
23 asserts in his complaint that Ms. Wray's statements were false and created a false impression of 24 him, incredibly claiming that she reported him because he "simply . . . attended the recall petition 25 signature drive." Compl. ¶¶55, 58.

26 By filing suit based on Ms. Wray's truthful and privileged statements to the police and 27 others, corroborated by his own video, Greenburg flagrantly violated the Anti-SLAPP statute.
28

1 5. Wray's Statements Regarding Greenburg's Compilation of Parent
2 Dossiers

3 Greenburg's Complaint targets Ms. Wray for statements made about his collecting of 4 information about SUSD-CAN parents petitioning the SUSD, including her, Compl. ¶¶108-141,
5 including statements to attorneys and the press. Id. at ¶¶108-110. He complains, without quoting
6 any statements, that Ms. Wray "falsely characterized Plaintiff as having harassed, threatened,
7 intimidated, and cyberstalked her." Compl. ¶111. Greenburg vaguely asserts without any 8 elaboration that Ms. Wray's statements were "false stories" and, further, her purpose was to 9 "increase media interest in Plaintiffs private records." Compl. ¶112. Greenburg also alleges Ms.
10 Wray "publicly disclosed Plaintiff's private records on her public Twitter account without alleging 11 exactly what she said or disclosed. Compl. ¶114. Greenburg further alleges Ms. Wray "publicly 12 published" one of his videos, but he does not say where or to whom or describe the disclosed
13 video other than to say it contains his recorded comments about other people. Compl. ¶115.
14 Greenburg did not allege any specific compensable injuries.

15 Greenburg collected the information to attack parents for their SUSD advocacy. See e.g.
16 exhl., Ex. A. Greenburg kept the information on the internet, stored at a web address (a Google 17 Drive) that did not require a password. Ms. Wray was able to see the files Greenburg amassed on 18 her and others after Greenburg's son shared the Google Drive's web address with four people
19 during an argument he was having. Wray Decl. ¶¶18-19.

20 Wray was able to review these files by simply clicking a link to the files that had been 21 given to her. Wray Decl. ¶¶19-20. She found that Greenburg used fake accounts to infiltrate the 22 SUSD-CAN network and took screenshots of the members of the group and their posts, including
23 from private groups, and had Wray's mortgage documents, property deeds, pictures of Ms. Wray's 24 children and homes, a background check, business and professional licenses, and even records for 25 another Amanda Ross, which is Ms. Wray's maiden name. Id. at ¶¶11, 20. Ms. Wray's reaction
26 to this was so visceral that she fell ill and vomited. Id. at ¶21.

27 Greenburg's allegations violate the Anti-SLAPP statute. Ms. Wray's public advocacy
28 about Greenburg's harassment and intimidation, including his collection of information about her

1 and other SUSD parents, targeting people petitioning the SUSD is protected by the Anti-SLAPP
2 statute. See BLK III at ¶19 (statute protects public advocacy regarding government matters) (citing
3 Amended Senate Fact Sheet, H.B. 2440, 47th Leg., 2d Reg. Sess. (Apr. 19, 2006)). Greenburg’s
4 claims do not survive the statute because he failed to allege specific facts demonstrating Ms.
5 Wray’s statements were not constitutionally protected speech or that they were not within the
6 scope of A.R.S. § 12-751(1) and that they had no reasonable factual support or any arguable basis
7 in law, and he failed to allege he suffered “actual compensable injury.” BLK III at ¶10 (citing
8 A.R.S. §12-752(B)); see also BLK III, at ¶¶15-16 (plaintiff must clearly and specifically allege 9 the content and context of the challenged statements and why and how they were defamatory.”).

10 Any statements Ms. Wray made were based on fact and constitutionally protected or 11 otherwise lawful. Greenburg’s allegation that Ms. Wray’s comments cast him “in a clearly 12 erroneous light,” Compl. ¶116, is unsustainable because he concedes he was amassing this 13 information about her to use against her. In a statement utterly lacking in self-awareness, 14 Greenburg alleges Ms. Wray’s “objective was to terrorize” him. Compl. ¶118.

15 Moreover, for Ms. Wray to be liable for seclusion upon intrusion or public disclosure of 16 private facts, Greenburg would need an “objectively reasonable expectation of seclusion” or a 17 reasonable “interest in not having his affairs known to others.” Med Lab. Mgmt. Consultants v.
18 Am. Broad. Cos., 30 F. Supp. 2d 1182, 1188 (D. Ariz. 1998); Reed v. Real Detective Pub. Co., 63
19 Ariz. 294, 303 (1945). Once an open URL is voluntarily turned over to third parties, there is no
20 legitimate expectation of privacy. Palmieri v. United States, 72 F. Supp. 3d 191, 210 (D.D.C.
21 2014). That expectation is “extinguished” when “a computer user disseminates information to the 22 public through a website.” Id. Considering Greenburg placed his dossier on SUSD parents on the 23 internet without a password, he and his son shared this information with other people, and his son 24 shared the address with four other people, Greenburg’s cannot establish Ms. Wray violated his 25 privacy.

26 Accordingly, Greenburg’s claims based on Ms. Wray’s (unspecified) truthful and lawful 27 statements and actions violate Arizona’s Anti-SLAPP statute.

28 * * *

1 In sum, any statements by Ms. Wray that Greenburg collected information about SUSD
2 parents on the internet, and that this made her feel harassed, intimidated, threatened, and 3 cyberstalked on account of their advocacy before the SUSD, were accurate and protected. Ms.
4 Wray is also not liable for any embarrassment Greenburg feels due to any public backlash against 5 his disturbing conduct or the information he placed on the internet.

IV. CONCLUSION

This lawsuit is the latest, and hopefully last, chapter in Greenburg's unlawful harassment and intimidation campaign against Ms. Wray and SUSD parents in retaliation for their advocacy regarding the SUSD school board. The Court should hold Greenburg accountable for his actions by: (A) dismissing, with prejudice, the Complaint pursuant to A.R.S. §12-752; (B) finding that this lawsuit was brought to deter or prevent Ms. Wray from exercising her constitutional rights and right to petition; (C) finding that the lawsuit is intended to harass and/or cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; (D) order Greenburg to pay the Defendants attorney's fees, costs; and (E) impose sanctions permitted by A.R.S. §12-752.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED on March 25, 2022.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

MARK ALAN GREENBURG, a married man,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMANDA WRAY AND DANIEL WRAY,
a married couple,

Defendants.

Case No.: CV2022-001353

DECLARATION OF AMANDA WRAY

I, Amanda Wray, declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of eighteen and am competent to testify as to the matters herein.

The following is based upon personal knowledge unless otherwise noted.

2. I am a defendant in the above-captioned matter and submit this declaration in support of mine and my husband's, Defendant Daniel Wray, Special Motion to Dismiss Strategic Lawsuit Against Public Participation (SLAPP) Pursuant to A.R.S. § 12-752.

3. I am a mother whose children attend public schools within the Scottsdale Unified School District ("SUSD").

4. In or around August 2020, I became a vocal participant in public discussions around SUSD's educational policies. I was most vocal about the need for in-person learning, the lack of transparency among SUSD officials, SUSD's fiscal policies (namely, its reckless spending), the exclusion of parent involvement in setting SUSD policy, and violations of Arizona's Open Meeting Law.

5. As part of my public advocacy efforts, I was an administrator and participant in the SUSD-CAN Facebook group, which was a forum in which parents could discuss important issues and strategies to influence SUSD's education policies.

6. As a result of my participation in public discussions around SUSD education policies, I attracted the ire of Plaintiff Mark Alan Greenburg ("Greenburg"). I believe the main reason that Greenburg began taking actions to oppose my public participation (culminating in this lawsuit) is that he objected to any parents challenging any decisions or actions of his son, Jann-Michael Greenburg ("Greenburg's son"), an elected member and then president of the SUSD Governing Board.

7. I first noticed Greenburg had tracked my whereabouts on September 1, 2020, when I was holding signs with other community members in support of in-person learning. Greenburg took a video of parents who were holding signs and, shortly thereafter, it was uploaded to YouTube.

8. I encountered Greenburg in person on January 19, 2021, at an SUSD Governing Board meeting that I attended to show support for two parents, who were nervous, that I know who were making public comments. Greenburg was notorious in the greater community for attacking people he disagreed with by filing lawsuits against them, insulting them on social media, and creating websites devoted to attacking them. I arrived before Greenburg and was seated in the audience. Greenburg arrived late to the meeting and we made eye contact when I turned my head towards the entrance as he walked in. He initially sat to my left , with multiple chairs between us. After several minutes, Greenburg, who is a large man, then stood up and moved seats to sit directly behind me. Throughout the meeting, he coughed heavily. After public comments ended, and prior to the end of the meeting, I began to pack my things to leave. Greenburg placed a soda can under his seat and left the meeting, indicating to me that he had not left the premises, but would return. I decided to not leave while he was out in the hall out of fear that he would confront me. After roughly twenty minutes, he then returned to his seat. I felt intimidated and harassed by Greenburg moving to sit directly behind me, coughing, leaving his soda can, and then returning to sit behind me. It made me feel that Greenburg was sending a message to me. I felt as though he was watching and following me, and wanted me to know it.

9. On January 21, 2021, I participated in an online public town hall meeting with Greenburg's son. Greenburg also attended this meeting. During that town hall meeting, I accused Greenburg's son of having a political rant during an earlier SUSD Board meeting. A few hours later, at 12:00 a.m., Greenburg, using a Facebook account established in the name of "Frank Graham," which used a profile picture showing an African-American family, sent me the following message on Facebook messenger: "I finally saw you in person. You might want to buy a peloton [sic] bike[.]" I had previously removed this account from the SUSD-CAN Facebook page, which led to my comment "Goodbye!" A true and correct copy of this message is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. I believed at the time that "Frank Graham" was Greenburg given his propensity for creating fake online personas, and felt harassed by receiving a message from him criticizing my appearance so soon after attending a SUSD Governing Board meeting. It was later confirmed that “Frank Graham” was indeed Greenburg. It is this interaction that led me to say Greenburg sent me an unwanted, unsolicited private Facebook message. I felt like that message was intended to intimidate me away from attending future Board meetings and challenging Greenburg’s son.

11. Greenburg, while logged into the “Frank Graham” Facebook account, infiltrated the “SUSD K-12 Community Forum for FULL Re-Open,” (later renamed SUSD-CAN) a private Facebook group. He then printed an 89-page PDF showing all of the members and administrators (including me) of the group. The same Facebook profile picture is in these screenshots as the Facebook profile picture of the “Frank Graham” that messaged me in the middle of the night. A true and correct copy of Facebook screenshots that were found on Greenburg’s Google Drive that show him as logged in as “Frank” is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

12. On January 25, 2021, I sent an email to SUSD Superintendent Scott Menzel (“January 25 Email”) in which I related my concerns regarding my personal safety given the harassment and intimidation Greenburg had been subjecting me to. A true and correct copy of my email to Mr. Menzel is attached hereto as Exhibit C. I believed everything in the email at the time it was sent, and the purpose of the email was to explain that I felt unsafe at SUSD Governing Board meetings because of Greenburg’s actions.

13. In the January 25 email, I stated: “I’m not certain if this is true, but I have heard from a reliable source that Mark Greenburg threatened another private citizen by displaying a weapon while out placing campaign signs for Eric Kurland.” I believed this to be true because three individuals told me about an encounter between an unknown couple (who they all believed to be credible) and Greenburg in or around November 2020. The couple confronted him because they were concerned he was taking the displayed campaign signs of an opposing state legislature candidate. Greenburg responded by telling them that he had a handgun. When I heard the story, I interpreted Greenburg's statement that he had a gun to be an example of his recent threatening behavior. In November 2021, I learned the identity of the unknown couple, Yvonne Cahill and her husband Joseph Junker ("Junker"). I have located a police report from this incident, demonstrating that both Greenburg and Junker reported to police that Greenburg told Junker he had a gun. A copy is attached as Exhibit D.

14. Later in 2021, Greenburg created a "meme" and posted it to the comments section of a post by Eric Kurland on Facebook. Greenburg stated "What should anyone expect? This is one of the attendees at the meeting tonight. She now disputes that anyone acted improperly and is gaslighting [sic] all over the place about the decorum of those in attendance." Along with the comment, he posted a meme of a parent's face, with text. The meme stated "'What I do believe is that minorities victimize themselves and blame it on others.' Posted to FB by Kathryn 'Kiki' Dupey 5-07-21. Ms. Dupey is a former PTO President of an SUSD School."

15. When I saw Greenburg's comment about a friend, which I believed to be out of context, I took this as a personal attack on a parent for her efforts to petition SUSD, which was consistent with how Greenburg had treated me and other parents. My personal reaction was that Greenburg would harass any parent, including myself, who challenged Greenburg's son or certain SUSD policies. I posted his comment, and stated "Please go to this public post and report Mark's comment as harassment," and linked to the post with the offending comment. The reason for my post was to raise awareness about how Greenburg will target certain parents who speak to SUSD. I hoped that public awareness would make Greenburg stop targeting parents after they speak, including myself. A true and accurate copy of my Facebook post and the meme, are attached as Exhibit E and F.

16. On August 24, 2021, I attended a signature-gathering event that I helped organize for a petition to recall certain members of the SUSD Governing Board, including Greenburg's son. At this time, I was aware that Greenburg and his son had been compiling information about us, which I later viewed on Greenburg's Google Drive, so I was fearful of his presence, knowing that he may be adding content to his files.

17. On August 24, a 105-degree day, a man I suspected to be Greenburg followed me into the parking lot wearing a motorcycle outfit that covered his entire body, including a helmet, and parked directly in front of my vehicle in a mostly empty lot, and, I believe, took pictures of myself and my car. I immediately suspected it was Greenburg because of Greenburg's large frame and his motorcycle jacket, which was the same as the one he wore on January 19, 2021. When I later moved my car away from Greenburg, he left the lot and then returned to park in a different spot with his camera pointed at us. I felt harassed, stalked, and intimidated by Greenburg's actions as he was taking photographs of me while disguised, and he seemed focused on me while he was taking pictures of various people at the event I attended. Greenburg was also taking photographs of other people, some of whom had their children with them. I, and other parents, felt so uncomfortable about the surveillance and photography of our children by the disguised person, Greenburg, that we spoke to the police officers on campus that afternoon.

18. Earlier in August 2021, I learned that Greenburg's son had an argument with Kim Stafford that took place over email with multiple people copied. In his email to Stafford, Greenburg's son included a screenshot (photo) of his entire computer desktop. The screenshot showed a Facebook post that Ms. Stafford made. The screenshot also showed that Ms. Stafford's post was stored on a Google Drive entitled "CAN-NETWORK," with the entire URL (web address) displayed.

19. I later shared the screenshot with another person Greenburg had sued. On September 29, 2021, I obtained an email with a hyperlink to the Google Drive from a mutual friend. I also typed the URL from the screenshot shared with Kim Stafford. The Google Drive did not require any password or log-in credential. To view the files in the Google Drive, all one had to do was type the URL that was shown on the screenshot Greenburg's son had previously circulated into any web browser. The hyperlink provided to me did nothing more than link to that same web address so I did not have to type the address myself.

20. Given that Greenburg's son had stored screenshots of Kim Stafford's Facebook posts from a private SUSD-CAN Facebook, I was concerned he may have been compiling information on me. I clicked on the hyperlink and was shocked to find that Greenburg had stored a huge number of files about me (along with other community members) on the internet. Greenburg had been uploading documents and information about me dating back to September 3, 2020. Greenburg had stored screenshots of Facebook posts I made, including in private Facebook groups which Greenburg accessed using alias accounts, my mortgage documents, property deeds, pictures of my children and my homes, a background check, and business and professional licenses. He also had bankruptcy and university records of Amanda J. Ross. These are not records for me, but my maiden name is "Ross." There were also communications I had with SUSD which Greenburg had obtained with public records requests.

21. Also, a meme was on the Google Drive that stood out. It stated: "Meet Amanda Wray, community activist and moderator of the SUSD-CAN Page and wife of Daniel Wray, a VP of Sales for National General Insurance. Ms. Wray advocates for reducing access to Covi-19 [sic] vaccines to the underserved communities within the SUSD School District and believes she has been called by God to offer her dubious financial planning services to families seeking to enroll their children in private religious schools. Ms. Wray might want to get her own financial house in order before giving advice to others. She has two mortgages on her primary residence and used the proceeds of the second mortgage to buy a vacation home in Prescott, which she is operating as an Airbnb. We are so happy to have her here in the Scottsdale Unified School District. Sunshine is the best disinfectant. End racism now within our community.” (A true and accurate copy of this meme as I found it on the Google Drive is attached as Exhibit G). After reviewing all of the contents on the Google Drive, I felt as if I was being watched. My heart began racing and I immediately fell ill and vomited.

22. I later learned that Greenburg added to the Google Drive body camera footage from the day Greenburg photographed me and others while wearing a motorcycle suit and helmet, including Greenburg telling women in the parking lot outside the SUSD Governing Board meeting that he intended to sue me. In the video, Greenburg tells these women that he has hired a private investigator to record our license plates. He further stated “The lengths we have to go to to not be recognized...they don’t like having their picture taken, I’ll tell you that.” Referring to me, Greenburg said “she was one of the first cars here. I pulled my motorcycle directly facing her car; she has no idea I even have a motorcycle and I’ve covered up my license plate. She’s just a lunatic.” A true and accurate copy of this video, as it was stored on the Google Drive, is attached as Exhibit H.

23. I shared the link to the Google Drive with various friends whom Greenburg had also stored information about in the Google Drive. I believed and still believe the Google Drive is a publicly accessible website that anyone with an internet browser and the URL (which Greenburg’s son had shared) could access. I also discussed Greenburg’s actions with members of the media. The Google Drive was view-only access. I did not—and to my knowledge, could not—alter the contents of the Google drive.

24. I felt harassed and intimidated by Greenburg's actions of storing a huge amount of personal information about me on a Google Drive, and one that was also publicly accessible. I felt that Greenburg had cyber-stalked me by taking many screenshots of my activities on the internet, including in Facebook groups that were private and to which Greenburg should not have had access. I was frightened by the thought of his intentions of saving photos of my children.

25. Everything described in this declaration arose exclusively from my efforts to influence SUSD policy by speaking at school board meetings, advocating for policy changes, and associating with others to do the same.

26. My motive in sharing information about Greenburg's activities was to protect myself and other community members who were trying to influence school board policy from Greenburg's harassing and intimidating behavior by exposing his wrongdoing.

I, Amanda Wray, declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Arizona that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated: March 25, 2022.

Goodbye!

12:00 AM

I finally saw you in person. You might want to buy a peloton bike.

EXHIBIT C

Dear Dr. Menzel,

First, please let me express my gratitude for the leadership you have shown in your new role as Superintendent. We all know that you have been tasked with an incredibly difficult job and you are working tirelessly. Our community is so appreciative that you are putting the needs of students at the heart of every decision that you make. Most importantly, you are relying on facts to make rational decisions.

Sadly, I need to bring something to your attention that I, and others, are very concerned about. I have no doubt that you are aware of the negative history surrounding Jann-Michael Greenburg and his father, Mark Alan Greenburg. The bullying and harassment of other board members and other public officials is well-documented in the news and has left a stain on the reputation of SUSD.

At the last board meeting, I attended the meeting with several fellow parents, some of whom made public comments. Shortly after the board meeting started, Mark Greenburg walked into the room and looked at me in way that made me uncomfortable. I knew immediately who he was. After sitting down behind me, slightly to my left, he got up and moved to the seat directly behind me. Several of us felt uncomfortable as he lurked behind us when there were plenty of other open and available seats around the room. This clearly felt like an intimidation technique intended to scare us. After public comment discussion, and the metrics discussion, I began to pack up my things to get back home to my family. Mark left the room in advance. Because we had felt so uncomfortable, I decided not to leave until one of my friends could leave with me as I suspected that Mark was waiting in the lobby. He finally returned after a long absence (longer than a bio break) and took his seat. At the break, I was able to leave with my friend and we felt safe in the parking lot with a police officer present.

On Thursday night, our group known as "Full Return," hosted a Town Hall Zoom meeting with Jann-Michael. Mark Greenburg registered and attended the event. During the Q&A, Jann-Michael was asked about the appropriateness of his political commentary at the previous board meeting. I paraphrased in the chat his comment that I felt was inappropriate as non-partisan school board member "Some of the people that I voted for in this election lost, and that is a shame." That was the extent of my comment, he denied that it was inappropriate and said it was his right to express his opinion and that it was a shame. Mark Greenburg saw my name and my comment, I'm sure it made him angry and got under his skin. My camera was turned off during this Zoom meeting.

Prior to seeing Mark Greenburg face to face for the first time at the board meeting, he has participated in online bullying directed at me and many other members of the SUSD Full Return parent community. He does so on Jann-Michael's political Facebook page, Twitter and other social media outlets. When someone challenges Jann-Michael, Mark begins the harassment. We have put the pieces together to identify several fake profiles that he uses, along with his own actual name, to engage in this harassment. One of those pseudonyms, I, and many others, believe to be that of "Frank Graham."

Friday, at 12:00 a.m, several hours after my remark during the town hall meeting, I received a FB Instant Message from "Frank Graham" (see attached). I did not respond. In this message he is attempting to fat-shame me and is suggesting that I exercise. It's important to note that he says, "I finally saw you in person. You might want to buy a Peloton bike." Mark Greenburg is the only individual that from whom this comment makes sense. I sent a copy of it to Jann-Michael and he replied that he doesn't care. By Friday afternoon "Frank Graham"'s profile had been deleted or restricted and the message was gone. This isn't the first time I've gotten messages from Mark Greenburg in the middle of the night. He often deletes them by the next morning, probably not realizing that I've seen them. We have multiple instances from many parents and we are compiling the evidence into a central file for use in a criminal case if necessary.

In the meantime, I wanted to bring this to your attention. I'm deeply saddened that something so disgusting is occurring in our community and school district and is occurring because of our school board president's inaction to prevent and discourage the behavior from someone that he shares a home and business with. How often do we look to our elected officials to condemn unacceptable behavior and judge their inaction as being complicit? This is no different. My 2nd and 4th grader call me out for using a bad language when I get cut off in traffic. Jann-Michael's defense of "I can't keep up with what my father does" and "I could have told him to stop, but I chose not to" is a cop-out. If he can't call out bad behavior by his own family members, how can we trust him to serve our school district with dignity?

This is childish and I frankly feel ridiculous having to write this drama in an email to the Scottsdale Superintendent. It's a waste of your time and resources, but the attack wasn't specifically about me. It was an attack on anyone who questions the intentions and competency of our school board president. What kind of feedback will the other board members get if this is how Mark Greenburg retaliates in defense of his son? How can we ever trust that board members are making independent decisions and not ones in fear of being harassed. Allowing this behavior to continue unchecked will only create a bigger divide between the board and our community. Trust will never be restored and SUSD will continue to be stained.

At the next board meeting, I will ask the police officers present to make note of his presence if he does attend. I know I have the support of some dads as well, Mark typically likes to pick on women. I'm not certain if this is true, but I have heard from a reliable source that Mark Greenburg threatened another private citizen by displaying a weapon while out placing campaign signs for Eric Kurland. I've made this information public to other members our our group and there is increased awareness of Mark Greenburg's behavior. I have the support of hundreds of parents that have pledged to speak up about this behavior. We aren't going to be intimidated into silence any longer.

If there is anything that you can do to help insure our safety at school board meetings, I would ask that you please do so. I realize that you don't have control of our safety outside of school board meetings, but for that I would ask that you please do whatever is in your power to help us continue to have a voice about our children's education without being harassed by the school board president's father. I realize that I am putting myself at great risk by making this public.

Kind regards,

Amanda Wray

Remarks

On 11/01/2020 at approximately 1948 hours, I was on routine patrol in a fully marked SPD patrol vehicle, wearing a full regulation SPD blue uniform, and my issued OBC, which was activated throughout the call. I was dispatched to the area of N 77th Pl/E McCormick PY reference an attempt to locate vehicle call for service.

Comments on the call advised that the RP was putting up political signs when a male subject began shining a flashlight in his face and getting closer than six feet. Comments advised the suspect vehicle left eastbound on E McCormick PY and was displaying AZ license plate K9HERO.

Dispatch was able to advise me that the license plate came back to [REDACTED]. I responded to the residence and observed the vehicle displaying that license plate parked in the driveway.

While waiting for another unit to arrive, I contacted the RP, identified as Mark Greenburg. Mark stated that he and his colleague, identified as Jennifer McDowell, the second RP on this call, were putting up political signs near the polling location on E McCormick PY. Mark stated that they observed a smaller pickup truck parked down the street all blacked out. Mark advised me that when they parked and began taking their signs out of the vehicle, the truck turned its lights on, sped past them, turned around, and then parked behind them. Mark stated that two individuals got out of the truck, a male and female, who he believed were husband and wife. Mark stated they began shining flashlights in their faces and demanding to know what they were doing and who they were. Mark stated that he and Jennifer informed them that they were putting up political signs and the male subject advised they were checking because people had been stealing/damaging signs. The male subject then informed Mark his signs were false and was "blocking" the pathway for them to walk by. Mark stated the male subject then began to get closer to him, closer than six feet, and he was not wearing a mask. Mark informed the male subject that he "had a gun" and to not get any closer. Mark stated the subjects eventually backed off and left in the truck.

Officer Motiejunas #1438 then arrived at the residence and we contacted the owner of the vehicle in question, identified as Joseph Junker. I informed Joseph that we were called about an incident that occurred on E McCormick PY that involved his vehicle. Joseph informed me that he and his wife had been in the area and were wondering what the two individuals were up to. He stated that this was "his neighborhood" and he was protecting it. Joseph informed me that they had signs stolen and damaged lately, so they were trying to prevent that. I then asked Joseph why he didn't just leave them alone after discovering they were not destroying the signs, and he stated he was trying to tell them that their signs were inappropriate and fake. We informed Joseph that everyone was entitled to free speech and they were legally allowed to post the signs. Joseph stated he understood but was just trying to protect his "friends". When asked several times again why he even approached the two individuals in the first place, he kept stating "I was just seeing what they were up to". When asked why he did not call SPD if he thought they were committing a crime, he stated he did not want to bother us. Joseph then stated he was "threatened" because the male stated he had a gun. When asked what the specific threat was, Joseph stated "Stay back, I have a gun". When I informed Joseph, the male subject was concerned because he was getting too close and did not have a mask on, Joseph stated he did have a mask on. We informed Joseph not to approach people anymore who are just posting signs and to call us if a crime was occurring. He stated he understood.

Joseph's wife, identified as Yvonne Cahill did not come to the door due to being on a phone call, however, Joseph stated she was present with him during the incident.

I then responded to the area of the signs and observed none were damaged.

This concludes my involvement in this incident.

Okay parents, this just got personal! Jann-Michael's daddy, Mark Alan Greenburg, just personally attacked one of our own by taking a comment way out of context.

Please go to this public post and report Mark's comment as harassment. We are shamed for taking a stand for our MINOR children, but the gloves are off when we challenge his ADULT son who is an elected official. See comment for offensive post

Hi Kim,

Just for the benefit of those CC'd so they understand my views, here is your discussion about how Ms. Kathleen Angelos, who made virulent Islamaphobic and anti-Semitic comments, might not actually be anti-Semitic since, according to you, George Soros is only "of Jewish descent, but his family is not observant."

I mean, really? What a statement. If only his family had told the Nazis they were non-observant. Then, maybe, they would not have had to change their last name from Schwartz to Soros and pose as a Christian family just to survive. Clearly his non-observant status is also why George Soros faded into obscurity and is not the leading target of anti-Semites around the world.

Thanks for this new line of inquiry. Definitely not anti-Semitic at all. George Soros is clearly a Nazi because of his non-observant status.

You could have just said, "Wow, Ms. Angelos's statements about Muslims and George Soros are not acceptable. Thanks for sharing." But, you didn't.

Hi Kim,

I think our conversations can end here.

If you do not recognize a difference between (a) criticisms of me, Julie, and Zach based on our actual actions on the board, and (b) consistent "speculations" about who "controls" SUSD's affairs and who is working "behind the scenes" (somehow it is always me), I think there will be no meeting of the minds here.

I wish your family all the best.

This email originated from outside of the SUSD organization . Do not click links, open attachments, or reply unless you recognize the sender and know the content is safe.

JM,

While I thank you for retracting the false allegation about correspondence I did not send, you have now substituted equally, if not more, insulting, defaming, and false allegations. As such I must defend my character against this inflammatory rhetoric. Any criticism I've made of your decisions, comments, or writings are solely in the scope of your role as an elected public official and specifically as SUSD governing board president.

I cannot address many of your comments because, as I previously wrote, I am not formally or informally associated with CAN. I have never been associated with CAN. I do not have visibility into their private Facebook group. I find it laughable, sad, and disingenuous you are attempting to hold me accountable for the random comments of 1,300 people when I was an administrator of the SUSD Re-Open Facebook group given your assertion to me in our private Messenger exchange that you should not be held responsible for the actions of your own father. If you'll recall, you wrote, "even if it is my father, it has nothing to do with me....Dragging me into the actions of others who are not my subordinates legally or practically is bad faith." Yet you want to hold me to a different standard?

My speculation regarding you directing counsel to send the letter regarding misuse of the registered trade name "SUSD" is based on:

1. The nature of your professional career and its relation to knowledge regarding the registration of trademarks and trade names associated with SUSD
2. That you similarly erroneously referred to SUSD as a registered trademark in your Facebook post as did the correspondence sent to CAN
3. That the correspondence itself indicates counsel was directed by the district to send the correspondence
4. Finally, that only a select few individuals have the authority to direct counsel to send such correspondence, being you or Scott in your chief administrative roles.

Please note none of the bases I articulated have anything to do with any religious beliefs or cultural identity you may hold, nor anything else of a personal nature about you.

You furthermore mischaracterize my criticism of the handling of the May 18 governing board meeting. I did not support those who did not wear masks; in fact, I wrote the district has the right (under the law as it existed at the time) to mandate masks. I criticized the selective enforcement of the district's mask policy when said policy allowed for no exceptions but for students in certain outdoor situations as modified in April. Enforcing the mask mandate in one room while offering another interior space on district property (in the same building, no less) where people could congregate without masks was (and still is) in my view arbitrary enforcement of the policy. You wrote about the meeting on your Facebook page and you, in your role as board president, communicated the selective and arbitrary enforcement. In return, I exercised my right to offer my opinion on the handling. My view was further supported by the actions of multiple board members and district personnel the very next week at various graduation events. Social media posts depict district personnel and board members not wearing masks although the district policy remained in effect at that time. I stand by my criticism of the handling of the May 18 meeting for that reason which, again, has zero relation to any religious beliefs or cultural identity you may have or anything else of a personal nature about you. In no way were my comments a personal attack, and I choose not to speculate about what causes you to personalize them.

As a public official, and specifically in your role as governing board president, the decisions, actions, and comments you make within the scope of that role are subject to scrutiny and criticism. You previously acknowledged such in our private Messenger exchange. You further specifically invite scrutiny and criticism by your social media posts. Other board members do not have such scrutiny and criticism because they either have no active public Facebook presence and/or routinely limit their social media posts to district news. Anti-Semitism is “hostility or prejudice against Jews” which is unfortunately still very real in our world. Your attempt to claim my criticism of your decisions, actions, or comments as a public official is rooted in bigotry or anti-Semitism is simply unfounded and, more importantly, untrue. In the past I criticized some of Julie’s comments that in my opinion prioritized teachers over students; I spoke of my perception that Zach lacked assertiveness and was too deferential to other board members during meetings; I wrote of prior board members who seemingly disengaged near the end of their term rather than fight for an in-person option. Are all of those criticisms based on bigotry and/or anti-Semitism, too? Of course not; they’re solely based on my observations and perception of their decisions, actions, and comments in the scope of their roles as public officials. You’re no more special than them, and I hold no delusions of your grandeur.

Although I would prefer to concentrate on how I can support the SUSD Mission moving from aspirational to realized, if you continue to cast aspersions on my personal character and motives I will continue to vigorously refute and defend them.

Sincerely, Kim Stafford

Hi Kim,

I accept your denial and, while I reiterate that it was an allegation, certainly retract it.

That said, I maintain my personal view that your, Mr. Carney's, Ms. Cooper's, and many other current and former members of SU - CAN's group hold extremely bigoted views and your obsession with me can only be described as anti-Semitic.

The SU - CAN's apparent ability to remove "liberals" and "fake accounts" and block me and others from its group, but "inability" to control racist, homophobic, transphobic, anti-Catholic, anti-Semitic, and other discriminatory content speaks for itself. That includes when you were an active member of the group and, regardless of your role, chose to remain associated with that group knowing of what was being said. But association is not the only element supporting my view.

You, yourself, posited that I orchestrated potential trade name and/or trademark issues with SU - CAN beginning last year (a "chess move" in your words), which is the most conspiratorial speculation I have seen in some time about me. (See screenshot). This is no different than Ms. Carney's patently false statements.

Your defense of those who refused to follow clearly stated district policies on mask wearing, further causing a security threat and forcing us to cancel a meeting, and complete blame of me "mishandling" the situation for not uniformly applying mask rules is equally preposterous. I was specifically asked and instructed to make those announcements by board members, administrators, and security. Instead, you chose to identify me as the individual who single handedly decided what rules to apply and whether to cancel the meeting, and then held me responsible for attendees' misbehavior. (See screenshots). The power you believe I have is near magical.

You also question whether I committed all of these acts deliberately as part of a master plan to stop public comments. (See screenshots). This is comical, since I routinely advocate not to limit public comments and successfully challenged unconstitutional elements of our public comment policy. But you wouldn't know that, nor would you care, since that does not fit your conspiratorial, prejudicial narrative.

You even bizarrely state that I or my father invented Courtney Harrison, who is a parent of two children in our district, simply because she supports me and then argued with other parents about the point. (See screenshots).

I could go on, but the point is this: in your mind, and in the mind of many of SU - CAN's current and former members, everything in our district is some great conspiracy theory aimed at ruining your and your children's lives and that somehow I, alone, am the puppet master pulling all the strings. That goes to the very core of the anti-Semitic world view.

I would love to give you the benefit of the doubt on this, but I cannot. We have three democrats and two republicans on our board. We have two men, and three women. We have three members with children currently in the district, and two members who do not. We have two teachers on our board, and three non-teacher professionals.

Yet, I am the only Jewish member of the board. I am the only member routinely accused of pulling the strings of our district. I am also the only member accused of conspiring against SU - CAN and SUSD parents generally.

I should note that while I do not discuss my religious views as that is a private matter, SU - CAN's members don't see it that way. Like Missy Lawson-Baker's classic comment: "I assume JMG is Jewish," before going on to make comments about my circumcision and how that is somehow the equivalent of forced vaccinations. Since I've never commented about my religion in public, one really has to wonder where SU - CAN's members get that idea.

I reiterate my plea to all of you to stop this behavior. White supremacy is a very real threat, and feeding its narratives will get someone injured or, worse, killed.

Regards,

JM,

I reiterate to you that your allegation is 100% false. I neither wrote nor have knowledge of any letter to anyone or any entity about anything or anybody related to SUSD, nor do I have knowledge of what you are referencing with respect to Turning Point Academy [sic], Tipping Point Academy, or Facebook (or any other social media) posts.

As such, I renew my request that you cease making any such allegations because, unless you can provide proof of such an action, which you absolutely cannot because it does not exist, you are defaming my character. Please cease immediately making such an accusation now that you have heard directly from me that it is false. I further renew my request my name be redacted from any future public records requests related to your inflammatory and unmerited allegation.

I recently read this Scottsdale Progress article (https://www.scottsdale.org/news/group-feels-vindicated-by-birdwell-indictment/article_9c13e992-f78f-11eb-b730-c7c6094ba18c.html)

in which you were referenced thusly: “Greenburg said some on the board were openly hostile to parents and community members who were bringing forward concerns.” Should you continue to “allege” anything about me regarding correspondence in any form to any entity about anything of a personal nature related to you or SUSD then you are guilty of the same acts of which you accused Birdwell. I trust my complete, unequivocal denial is sufficient to put this matter to rest.

Sincerely, Kim Stafford

Hi Kim,

Thank you for your email.

As I noted, you and Ms. Cooper are alleged to have written a letter, the subject of which is identified in my letter. Further, that this letter was written in response to Notre Dame Prep's request that Turning Point Academy not reference Notre Dame Prep in any Facebook posts.

It is a very odd allegation for me to receive, since while I think very highly of Notre Dame Prep I do not actually know anyone at Notre Dame Prep.

I wish you and your family all the best there. It is a fantastic school.

All the best and stay safe,

Dear Jann-Michael,

I am shocked and appalled to read a false allegation you made about me in an email you sent to Amy Carney that is now the subject of a public records request. Because you cc'd Julie and Scott I am doing likewise to correct this false allegation:

“Likewise, for no apparent reason two of your colleagues, Ms. Stafford and (name removed), allegedly wrote a letter to (name removed) claiming that I am an atheist and hate Christians and that is why they are leaving SUSD, none of which is true.”

First, I never authored, edited, authorized or in any other way had involvement in or even knowledge of any communication allegedly sent by (name removed) - or anyone else - to (name removed) about you. Additionally, I have had NO communications of any kind with anyone at (name removed) regarding you, anyone at SUSD, or even the topic of SUSD itself.

Second, I am not a “colleague” of Amy Carney’s. I do not know her, have never had a conversation with her, and have only had a single email exchange in October 2020 when I was administering what was then the SUSD Reopening Facebook page. I am furthermore not a member of or, formally or informally, associated with the CAN group. I exited the group when my sole goal, providing an in-person learning option for SUSD students, was achieved. If you will recall from your own membership in that FB group and comment to me, I worked tirelessly to keep the mission focused on in-person learning and not be distracted by debating masks, SEL, CRT, or any other politically charged topics.

Third and finally, I do not know and do not care about your religious beliefs, cultural or ethnic identity, and certainly nothing else of a personal nature about you. Religion has no place in public schools. You and your beliefs were irrelevant to our daughter choosing to leave SUSD, and we would have supported her 100% if she chose to attend DMHS. The blunt truth is our daughter weighed her options and believed she would get a better education elsewhere. Her perspective is one of the many reasons I volunteered to serve on the Design Committee. I am a solid supporter of public education, and I want to see SUSD's vision move from aspirational to realized.

I hope this clears up any misunderstanding that may exist. JM, if you repeated your false allegation to anyone else I request you please correct the record posthaste now that you have my unequivocal denial of it. I also request any further public records requests that may include the email you sent have my name redacted because your allegation is 100% false.

Despite that my offer to Scott to serve on the Design Committee in my new role was declined, I remain a member of the SUSD community. I will continue to be actively engaged in its success as a community stakeholder.

Sincerely,

Kim Stafford

I don't see anti-Semitic here at all in these screenshots. Can you please clarify, Sima? Or did you mean anti-Islam?

➊ Kim Crews Stafford Soros is a Jew. Calling him a Nazi is anti-Semitic. I saw some other stuff earlier this year but can't find the screen shots. My apologies. She has removed tons of posts from her page. There was a lot of stuff on there that's not anymore.

➋ Sima if you find them I'm definitely interested, thank you. My understanding of Soros's heritage is that he is of Jewish descent, but his family is non-observant....but I digress.

➌ Sima Kravitz Valentine Thanks for sharing. Anti-Semitic, anti-Islam, calling people Nazis. None of this is acceptable or appropriate behavior, particularly for someone who is supposed to represent the interests of ALL students in SUSD.

Dear Ms Briganti,

The Supreme Court ruled 5-4 that the Oath of Office to be valid must be taken on a Christian Bible. Muslim Congresswomen AOC, OMAR and Talib used the Koran making them illegal. In view of this ruling, I fail to understand your reasoning for suspending JUDGE JEANNINE for her CONSTITUTIONAL Right, per the First Amendment to our CONSTITUTION, of free speech. After all, the illegals and guests with opposing viewpoints get air time on your Network.

I would appreciate your response to my question.

Andrea BAndrea so.. this may align with some people's thinking but not mine. I don't want to see board members posting hate rhetoric against any group.

I don't know if she is racist but she may be anti-Islam based on these posts. Thank you for following up and defending your opinion of her. I am grateful to find out more about all of these candidates.

Andrea BAndrea you have to dig sometimes. I know a lot of the conversation here is one issue and that's ok. But there is also more to the person, their motives, intentions, & other aspects to their decisions. Our district was so close to destruction not that long ago. I hope people look into the history of that and not repeat those mistakes.

I look forward to watching the SPC event.

Andrea BAndrea she is a racist and anti-Semitic.
That was enough for me.

⌚ Sima Kravitz Valentine how do you know she is a racist and anti-Semitic? That is a large claim and it does no good to just say these things, did she actually do something racist? These name calling extremes are difficult to swallow, and it fuels the flames of our differences to just spew them out so easily.

Andrea BAndrea I just went to her page to try to screen shot the posts but she has either tightened her security or taken them down. However I know others have previously because they have been so shockingly outlandish. Let me try to find them.. give me a few minute..

I've been trying to understand why GEORGE SOROS is hell bent on destroying AMERICA and the only thing I could come up with is this: he is angry because Ronald Reagan succeeded in bring down the BERLIN WALL in 1988. Soros was a NAZI in WWII. He wants revenge. Am I wrong?
